GAS HELMETS RUSHED TO

Rescuers Driven Back From Entrance of Mine by the Fumes of Gas

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—A score of gas helmets were taken this morning to Mulga, where preparations are being made to send rescuers into the wrecked mine of the Tennessee Mining Company, where fifteen whites and twenty-five negroes were entombed by an explosion late yesterday.

Helmets and other paraphernalia were taken to Mulga on a special train. The mine is badly wrecked. It is feared none are alive. Several parties of rescuers attempted to enter the mine but were driven back by the gas fumes. The rescuers have decided that they must wait until machinery is rigged to clear the gas from the shaft. There is little hope that any of the entombed men are alive.

ROOSEVELT NOW AT PARIS--HE IS BUSY

Lives the Strenuous Life as He Is Made of by All the Notables

(Staff Correspondent United Press)
PARIS, April 21.—Paris bestirred herself at an unusually early hour to welcome Colonel Roosevelt and a great throng was at the station when his train arrived, including M. Jussier, ambassador to America, and other notables. The Roosevelt party went to the home of United States Ambassador Bacon, where he remained until he attended a formal luncheon at the American embassy.

Later the Colonel called on President Fallieres and foreign Minister Pinchon. Both returned his visit at Ambassador Bacon's home. President Fallieres placed his box at the Comedie Francaise at Colonel Roosevelt's disposal. Elaborate plans have been made for the entertainment of Roosevelt by various organizations.

Referring to the printed statement of the New York Sun quoting him as saying that the Methodists in Rome were worse than the Catholics and that he would take steps to have them driven from Italy, Roosevelt said: "The statement is an unqualified falsehood and the Sun knew so when it printed it."

Saturday Colonel Roosevelt will lecture at the University of Sorbonne and President Fallieres is to tender him a banquet. On Monday the city will present him with a gold medal and Tuesday he will visit the National Military Academy.

WHEN HE SPEAKS HE WILL SPEAK FRANKLY
NEW YORK, April 21.—The Outlook today received a cable message from Dr. Lyman Abbott, denying that Roosevelt would "meddle" with European politics. Roosevelt, according to Abbott, has declared he would speak abroad only when requested, but on these occasions he would speak his mind freely and frankly.

Woman Fought
For Very Life
With Ex-convict

SAN QUENTIN, April 21.—Aroused by the screams of his sister-in-law, Kate Mossman, H. C. Halvorsen, a prison official, found the woman fighting for her life with Roy Fitch, an ex-convict, who had entered the house. Halvorsen, after a terrific struggle, beat Fitch unconscious with his fist, then called the prison guards.

Halvorsen believes the man came to the house to avenge some fancied wrong during his incarceration for larceny, committed in San Diego, for which he served three years.

When Miss Mossman discovered her in the house he seized her instantly, and the terrific struggle followed.

Badly Hurt

FULLERTON, April 20.—Yesterday afternoon, Jacob Collins, a foreman on the Santa Fe lease at Olinda, had one of his ribs broken and sustained other bruises by falling under his auto when it turned turtle.

Accompanied by two of his children and W. P. Johnson, he was ascending a hill, when the power gave out, and in attempting to hold the auto by the brake, the brake-band broke, and the machine ran backward over an embankment, making three revolutions before stopping. The others escaped injury.

MONROVIA TO UTILIZE UNAPPROPRIATED WATER

MONROVIA, April 21.—A gang of ten men, under the direction of Water Superintendent Dougherty, is laying 2000 feet of eight, six and four-inch pipe in Vassar canyon north of Deer Park. This water source has never been tapped by the city, nor has any one ever filed upon it. Though it will furnish a twenty-five-inch flow for ten months in the year, there is no record of its having been suggested in past years as a potential increment of the municipal mountain system.

THREE PHYSICIANS CALLED BY DEFENSE SAY OPINION IS OVERACKER WAS INSANE

In the Thaw murder trial they called it "brain storm." In the trial of S. H. Overacker, charged with murdering G. A. Winn, it is called "maniacal frenzy."

The attorneys for the defense in the Overacker case have been hammering hard on the insanity theory. Their case was closed this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and District Attorney Davis and Deputy Finley began putting on rebuttal evidence.

The questions put to the physicians were hypothetical questions, and from the question put to Dr. Barnes he said that it was his opinion that the hypothetical person mentioned in the question had a sudden outburst of feeling beyond his control. That outburst he called a "maniacal frenzy."

Attorneys W. H. Thomas and Victor Montgomery had three Santa Ana physicians on the witness stand, Drs. J. R. Medlock, F. M. Bruner and H. E. W. Barnes. Dr. Medlock was the first called. District Attorney Davis objected to taking the testimony of

OF HOUSE IS AT STAKE

Declares Change Must be Made to Restore Representative Government

WASHINGTON, April 21.—By introducing a resolution which if adopted will strip the speaker of the house of all power except that of a presiding officer, Representative Fowler of New Jersey has virtually accepted the challenge of Speaker Cannon to follow up the recent insurgent victory in the rules of the house fight. Fowler declared that his resolution will mark the final step to "secure the freedom of the house."

The resolution provides for the selection from the house of one from the minority and one from the majority, these to be empowered to select eleven members of the committee to select the majority committee and the majority is to choose the minority committee. They are to select these from seven divisions of the country effected by drawing six parallel lines, north to south, each division to be approximately equal in population. The resolution is causing profound speculation in the house.

Fowler said the "dissolution of the speaker's powers, so arrogantly abused, was absolutely necessary to the restoration of free representative government. The centralization of power permitting the speaker to appoint committees and thereby control legislation is the most autocratic influence in American politics. To say these powers made his office a gigantic machine for political blackmail, is only saying what everybody admits."

The resolution was read amid deep silence in the house, and a point of order was immediately raised by Payne of New York and Mann of Illinois. Hardwick of Georgia, Democrat, raised the point that no quorum was present. Payne moved a call of the house.

PAUL SHOUP GIVEN RAPID PROMOTION

Paul Shoup has been appointed assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific Co., to have charge of electric lines, and he will perform such other duties as are assigned to him. Three electric lines are owned by the Southern Pacific, among them the Los Angeles-Pacific interurban lines, Los Angeles. This appointment is of particular interest in Santa Ana by reason of the fact that Mrs. Shoup, formerly Miss Rose Wilson, lived here for many years, and has relatives and many friends here who will be pleased with the news of the rapid promotion of Mr. Shoup in the railroad business. He is now among the leading railroad men of the coast.

SAN PABLO, Cal., April 21.—One of the largest oil tanks in the world, with a capacity of 400,000 barrels, located here, is on fire. The tank is full to the brim and it will be several days before it is extinguished.

A dense cloud of black this morning overhangs the entire San Francisco bay region. The reservoir is the terminus of the Bakersfield pipeline. The fire started at midnight.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon begins the inquest upon the body of Gregorio Espinoza, killed yesterday morning by Chinese Inspector Ralph Conklin of San Diego. Conklin and William H. Chadney, also a Chinese inspector, who was with him, gave themselves up to Sheriff Lacy yesterday, but the sheriff, on investigation, saw no reason for keeping the men in custody.

Espinoza was struck by a bullet from Conklin's rifle when he was at a distance of forty steps from Conklin.

Yesterday Sheriff Lacy, in company with the two inspectors, went to the scene of the shooting, and the whole affair was explained to the sheriff.

It seems that Conklin and Chadney had been on the look-out for the Chinese since last Thursday. A part of the time was spent in the mountains near Modjeska's ranch. Tuesday night they came down to the place where the shooting occurred.

They found a pile of railroad ties stacked up beside the tracks. These ties were rearranged so that the men could lie down on top of the ties, tiers of ties protecting them from the view of anyone passing along the railroad.

About 1:30 o'clock the officers saw two Mexicans walking along the track from the direction of El Toro. Conklin stopped them and asked them, in Spanish, where they were going. One replied "Up the country."

These two men passed on and 150 yards behind them came Espinoza and the four Chinese. When the party was about thirty feet from the ties, both officers jumped from their hiding place. Conklin called out in Spanish and Chadney in Chinese, that they were officers, and called on them to surrender.

The Chinese stopped still. Espinoza walked a few steps forward. Conklin, who was armed with a rifle, fired a shot over Espinoza's head to scare him. Espinoza drew his revolver when this shot was fired, and fired one shot in the direction of the officers. Immediately he turned and

IRRIGATION BOARDS TO GO OVER GAGE CANAL SYSTEM INVESTIGATING ITS CLAIMS

On Tuesday the boards of directors of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Co. and the Anaheim Union Water Co. will make a trip up the Santa Ana river and over the system of the Gage Canal Co. The purpose of the trip is to better understand the situation in carrying on negotiations with the Gage Canal Co. in the settlement of the suit of the two Orange county irrigation companies against the Gage Canal Co. and other water users of the Riverside basin.

Settlement has been made with several of the defendants. Negotiations have been carried on with the Gage people, but there is a difference of 300 inches of water between the amount claimed by the company and the amount the lower companies are willing to admit the Gage Co. is entitled to. The canal company claims that it is entitled to 2160 inches.

Last Saturday the directors of the S.A.V.I. Co. and the A.U.W. Co. accepted the terms of agreement with the Riverside Highland Water Co., admitting the right of that company to take out of the river basin the amount of water it has used for five years past.

A special meeting of the directors of the S.A.V.I. Co. was called to act upon the matter.

COTTON MILLS SOON TO BE CLOSED SAYS PATTEN

NEW YORK, April 21.—"Wheat King" James A. Patten, predicted today that every cotton mill in the world will be closed during August and September because there will be no work.

He reiterated his denial that he is attempting to corner cotton.

He declared that if the government passes a proposed law prohibiting speculation in cotton futures it will leave the price of cotton in the hands of a few strong men, and producers will never know the actual market value of their crop.

Roosevelt Will Stand by Taft
On His Return

WASHINGTON, April 21.—"Col. Roosevelt, upon his return, will support the Taft administration from the ground up."

This positive statement was made today by one of the most prominent of President Taft's advisers. It was made in such a way that the inference was plainly intended to be drawn that Roosevelt has given his word to President Taft to this effect, and that Taft's inner circle of friends are aware of it.

The fact that the announcement was made yesterday that Senator Root will see Col. Roosevelt at The Hague, lends interest to the statement. The matter is being widely discussed with interest here.

HIGH PRICES GOING DOWN

New York Cuts General Prices
But Southern California to Get No Benefit

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—Although the wholesalers and retailers of New York have announced a general cut in prices of meats, produce and canned goods, the local wholesalers declare this action will probably not benefit Southern California.

H. Jevne, the wholesale grocer, declared today that the wholesalers have received no reductions, consequently none can be forthcoming here for retailers or consumers.

At the Maier Packing Company it was stated that the packers are still paying the same price for meat on the hoof, so that no reduction is in prospect.

LONDON, April 21.—A special dispatch from Peking says the American cruiser Cleveland from Yochow is near Changsha today. It is reported that the rioting at Changsha and vicinity has apparently been quelled and will not assume serious proportions.

In many other parts of China, particularly at Yi Tian, rioting is occurring. The mission school at Yi Tian is reported as burned. Serious complications are threatened there.

Only his daughter Clara, her pianist husband Gabrielowitch, the doctors and nurses are permitted in the sick room. Albert Bigelow Paine, for many years secretary to Twain, has been refused permission to see the humorist.

The oxygen treatment has been abandoned for milder forms of heart stimulation.

SPECTACULAR ESCAPE FROM PRISON BY "LIFERS"

Five Dangerous Criminals of

FORCED ENGINEER TO RUN

Two Recaptured But 3 Armed
Men Still at Large—Man
Hunt Is On

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., April 21.—Five of the most dangerous criminals of the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth overpowered the crew of a switch engine in the prison yard today and forced the engineer at the point of a revolver to run from the yards into the open country, where they escaped. The men told the engineer they would never be captured alive. Forty prison guards and a company of soldiers boarded a special train and went in pursuit. Two of the men, who were unarmed, were recaptured, but three others, who are heavily armed, are still at large.

The break was spectacular. The convicts compelled the engineer to use a locomotive as a battering ram to demolish the prison gate. He ran four miles into the open country, where he was stopped by a broken bridge.

It is believed the convicts had revolvers smuggled to them by ex-prisoners.

The convicts still at large are Arthur Huitt, Frank Gripwape and Thomas Keating, "lifers." Those recaptured were Bob Clark and John Gideon. The three men now at large are supposed to be hidden in a wine cellar nine miles from the prison and soldiers are enroute to that point. Huitt and Keating were ringleaders in a prison break in 1901 when twenty-six prisoners escaped and three were killed by the guards.

EXCURSION

TO

LINDSAY and DUCOR TULARE COUNTY

Excursion Leaves Los Angeles April 25th at 9:30 p. m. from S. P. Arcade Depot
$7.00 Round Trip. Free Berths $7.00

Secure Reservations by Monday Noon

On Monday, April 25th, we have arranged to run a joint excursion to Lindsay and Ducor, and we urge all those looking for orange or alfalfa land to take this trip with us in our private car. We will stop the car at Ducor, Tulare county, where we will take pleasure in showing our large grain ranch which we have recently subdivided into 20, 40 and 80 acre tracts, and are offering to the public at prices ranging from $35.00 to $60.00 per acre. This ranch is in the shallow water belt, and to demonstrate the abundance of water and shallow depth to same, we have put down a well and installed a pumping plant for our own use in irrigating 40 acres of alfalfa, which has just been seeded. The price on this fine land is far below the average, and we heartily commend it to anyone in search of good, cheap alfalfa, grain and deciduous fruit land.

From Ducor our car will be taken to Lindsay, the famous orange district of California, where we have a number of section subdivisions in 10, 20 and 40-acre tracts.

If you are looking for a home, a place where you can be independent on 10 or 20 acres, you should take this trip with us and see Lindsay, the place where soil, water and climate conditions are perfect and where the price is still within reach of all.

Lindsay is a town of 2,000 population, has fine schools and churches, and being surrounded by 10,000 acres of orange groves, is destined to be one of the largest cities in the valley.

Our lands are favorably located, all being within three miles of town, and our price ranges from $100.00 to $150.00 per acre, on reasonable terms.

We have given you a few facts about our land and excursion, but there are many things we cannot tell you about for lack of space. So if you are interested, come in and let us tell you all about the best district in the state. We want an opportunity to show you. Write, call or telephone us about this excursion.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennah Are Given Pleasant Surprise
By Their Friends

GARDEN GROVE, April 20.—The Y.P.B. will meet at the home of Bertha Robinson next Friday evening, April 22. These meetings are interesting and instructive for the young people and it is hoped others will come. At the last meeting of the society Raymond Beardsley and Edwin Schneider were entered as new members. Plans are being made for an entertainment next month.

Miss Grace Parker of Santa Ana visited at Mrs. McElree's today.

Last evening while Mr. and Mrs. Kennah were visiting at a neighbor's house forty-seven of their friends gathered at their home, and gave them a complete surprise when they returned, the occasion being their fifth or wooden anniversary. A program was arranged. The first was a piece on the phonograph, "Wedding Bells." Miss Rayburn then read a poem composed by herself, starting out with their five years of married life and ending with the 75th year. Mrs. McElree sang a song composed by herself to the bride and groom. She was encored and sang a piece composed by Mrs. Rayburn to the tune of "Yankee Doodle." Toasts were given by Mr. Ashleigh and Mr. Jencks. The couple received many nice presents and they were presented by Mr. Ashleigh. Mrs. Jenk gave a reading. Refreshments of cake and cocoa were served, and all had a most enjoyable time.

Miss Myrtle Butler was a visitor at Los Angeles yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hammond have returned from El Cajon and are visiting friends at Garden Grove.

Butler & Kennah are moving their wagon scales from Euclid avenue to Ocean avenue in front of their livery stable.

Mr. Otto and Mr. Ayres are installing motors on their ranches east of town.

Mrs. A. L. Davis was a visitor at Los Angeles Monday returning today.

Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Stark of Los Angeles are visiting at the home of Mrs. Stark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swall.

Mrs. Geo. Rayburn has gone to Los Angeles to visit with friends for a few days.

School Teacher Who Owns a Ranch Here Asks Damages for Injuries

Miss Catherine R. Paxton, who owns a walnut orchard at the south-west corner of Broadway and West Seventeenth streets, and who recently sold the city land at the corner of Ross and Seventeenth for a school site, has brought a $10,000 damage suit against the United Railroads in San Francisco for an injury in a street car wreck. Miss Paxton was just recovering from her injuries when she came here to negotiate the sale of her property to the city. The San Francisco Call tells of her suit as follows:

"Miss Catherine R. Paxton, a school teacher, who bears a disfiguring scar about an inch long on her right cheek as a result of a streetcar collision, is seeking to recover from the United Railroads $10,000 damages at the hands of a jury in Judge Murasky's court. The mark has decidedly marred the plaintiff's beauty. The corporation representatives, however, refer to it as a 'dimple,' and do not consider Miss Paxton entitled to more than small damages.

"On January 23, 1908, a car broke loose on the Eighteenth street hill, and collided with a car in which Miss Paxton was a passenger.

"She was thrown to the floor, and besides receiving the cut in her face, sustained fractures of two ribs."

Evangelistic Meetings

E. C. Love, evangelist of the Church of Christ, is holding a protracted meeting at the meeting house at the corner of Broadway and Walnut, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Subject for the evening, "The Rich Man and Lazarus." Each sermon is illustrated by charts.

Last evening the evangelist preached a discourse upon God's dealings with the world, and showed how God chose the weak things of the world to confound the mighty, and based his remarks upon the 26th, 27th and 28th verses of the first Corinthian letter. In his discourse he stated that the church of Christ did not catch what the world styled hobos, or the upper ten, but the middle class, and gave illustrations to show how God used Moses, who was slow of speech (Ex. 4:10.) to deliver his people from Egyptian bondage, and Gideon, who realized his littleness and unworthiness, to deliver his people from the hand of the Midianites.

The evangelist said the purpose of God in thus dealing with the world in the scheme of redemption was that no person should glory in his presence, but glory in the Lord, Cor. 1:1-29.

Circus is Coming

Watch the date, May 3rd, the day when the Campbell Brothers Great Consolidated Shows appear here. Each succeeding year new features are hunted up and added to this already famous circus—startling acts that play upon the imagination; hair-breadth escapes in mid-air by daring acrobats and the various ring acts that never fail to amuse. Horses always take a prominent part in every circus, and this is no exception to the rule. Beautiful silk-coated horses with glittering trappings and mounted by a bevy of pretty girls in natty costumes, catch the eye on all sides; no matter where it is, in the parade, or under canvas, in the sawdust ring, horses reign supreme. Campbell Brothers are famous for their thoroughbred horses and the number and beauty of their circus horses this season are beyond comparison. Watch for the grand street parade at 10 a. m. and the big shows at 2 and 8 p. m. under the new water-proof tents, rain or shine.

JEWS TO BE DRIVEN FROM HOLY KIEFF

Only Those Having Legal Right to Live There Can Remain; Soldiers to Aid Police

LONDON, April 21.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News says.

The dreaded day for the Jews of Kieff is approaching. On April 28, which is Holy Thursday in the Greek church, while His Most High Holiness Flavian, the orthodox metropolitan, is washing the feet of the twelve men before the concourse of the faithful in memory of the divine humility of the Saviour, soldiers will be driving 1200 Jews with their wives from the holiest of Russian cities.

Fearing that the police may prove too chicken-hearted, four officials and the vice minister of the interior, have been nominated by Stolypin to superintend the proceedings.

A large number of Jews have the right to live in Kieff, but those to be banished have not the legal right to be in the city.

THE OBSESSION OF THE "GAZETTE"

The Anaheim Gazette certainly has a bad case of Stantonitis. It is almost exasperatingly funny to note how seemingly seriously the Gazette takes itself and its candidate. Its latest tergiversation is to voice the imperative demand for a legislative candidate "more in harmony with the gubernatorial candidacy of Mr. Stanton," whom it declares to be the "overwhelming favorite of the Republicans of Orange county." It is to laugh!

Of the two legislative candidates now in the field, the Gazette says "Col. Coulter is a supporter of Hiram Johnson for governor, while Clyde Bishop favors Curry."

In conclusion the Gazette says: "The names of Assemblyman Melrose and C. C. Chapman have been mentioned in connection with this nomination. Mr. Melrose some months ago declined to permit the use of his name, and Mr. Chapman's inclinations are not in line with the ideas of Republicans who would place him in the running. Either gentleman could be nominated, and would grace the lower house at Sacramento. If both persist in declining, another candidate will probably be brought out."

"Orange county will not support a man for the legislature who is not in harmony with its favorite candidate for governor, and it would be politically unwise to send either to Sacramento in the event of Stanton's election—of which, we may be permitted to say, there is now very little doubt."

Of course the Gazette knows that neither Mr. Chapman nor Mr. Melrose will run for the assembly nomination. And if it thinks to scare Clyde Bishop into the Stanton camp by threatening to bring out "some other man"—well, it will be interesting to watch and see if Mr. Bishop will take the bait.

THE ROOSEVELT PHENOMENON

Roosevelt is naturally vexed at the fake report in a Paris paper that he had agreed with Pinchot to again become a candidate for president. No sooner does the African hunter reappear in civilization than the Ananias Club begins to boom. Another possibly false note has also come over the wire, to the effect that Roosevelt is anxious to hear all sides of the American controversy and is sorry that Senator Root could not have come to Europe, the inference being that the trip would have been made to lay further facts before him as to the situation here. It is to be hoped that Roosevelt did not say this, as it looks like laying just a little too much stress on himself.

As to that third term business, the popular prejudice against it has heretofore had reference to to consecutive terms. Under the convention system it is doubtless within the power of any president to renominate himself. If he can do it once he can do it twice, except there be a great public outcry against it, as in the case of Grant. For a second term he can do it easily, though there be a popular demand for another man, as in the case of Harrison. True, the people have their remedy, such as it is, by putting in the other party, as they did in the Harrison case, and would have done had Grant been forced upon them. Not that there was any objection to Grant, but to the precedent of a third consecutive term.

The proposed election of Roosevelt for a third term does not, strictly speaking, violate the time-honored precedent, but from a party standpoint it would be dangerous because of the handling that could be made of it. However, if the people demand Roosevelt, let it be so.

It will, however, do no hurt to discuss what might be called "the Roosevelt phenomenon," by which is meant the concentration of the public mind on Colonel Roosevelt to the exclusion of all other men, as though he were the only dependence. It is claimed by some that this marks an era of national hysteria and consequent decadence; that it has a Mexicanizing tendency in that it puts personality before principle; that the

Direct Primary Expensive
But Well Worth the Price

Holding elections is an expensive luxury and holding a primary election is going to prove as expensive as holding a general election. Part of this expenditure will come out of the county general fund of each county, part of it will be met by the candidates and partly the friends of the candidates, or friends of causes that candidates represent. We shall consider the last division first.

Nearly every candidate that enters the field for a state office will, to a certain extent at least, represent some popular movement or some private or corporate interest or at least some strong personal attachment. These causes, interests or fellowships, must organize to advance the candidacies of their champions or leave them out of the race. This is especially true of candidates for governor. Apart from what a candidate may do, leagues, committees and constituencies must be put to heavy expenditures in making the state acquainted with their purposes and candidates.

The Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League has for its reason for existing the emancipation of the Republican party in this state from corporation control. It is a great cause. The people of California must be made to understand it. Half a year is not too long a time to carry that message to the understandings of 300,000 men scattered over a territory 800 miles long and 200 miles wide. Headquarters must be maintained, organizers put in the field, speakers sent out and literature provided and distributed. Under the convention system relatively little of this work had to be done before the general election, the effort being mainly to secure the election of convention delegates favorable to whatever interest was taking part in the campaign without greatly disturbing the general public. To hold its power the "organization" will doubtless raise and expend $10 to the League's $1. The League's funds come from private donations. The "organization's" fund will come, directly or indirectly, mainly from the coffers of great corporations. One candidate is believed to be financed mainly by the Royal Arch, an organized liquor interest; still another candidacy has been liberally financed by prominent citizens of his home city. These expenditures will none of them figure in the returns required under the law, but they will aggregate tens of thousands of dollars and, very likely, hundreds of thousands of dollars policy of this country is rule by political parties, and that no man should be considered as greater than his party.

There is no doubt something in this contention, so far as the abstract idea is concerned, but it is also pointed out that Roosevelt's popularity can before the primary votes are counted in August. A republic is burdensome. There is no getting around that, and the direct primary has nearly doubled the expense of holding elections, but if it will afford free government it will be worth the price.

The county general funds of each county in the state must bear the expense of preparing and publishing the ballots, paying the election officers, furnishing the supplies and the places for voting, publishing the election notices required by law, etc. The printing bill is a heavy one and the advertising is, in the aggregate for the state, not light. Time was when citizens were drafted into public service now and again to give a day, but that there might be something to dole out to political odd-jobs men, and owing to a growing disinclination to make personal sacrifice for the common good, all services performed in holding an election are paid for. The law fixes the maximum to be paid an election officer for each election at $10, but the Board of Supervisors may fix the compensation at less than that and most of them do. Without special knowledge it may be assumed that the usual compensation is $5 each for the day and so much of the night as is needed to count out the vote.

As there are six such officers at each precinct, and upwards of 2,400 precincts in the state, it will be seen that the total must be no small sum of money. It is not likely that the counties of the state, in the aggregate, will pay less than $100,000 to election officers for services rendered on the 16th of August. The fling fees paid by the candidates will not go very far toward paying the cost of holding the primary election.

But what matter if our direct primary system does prove more expensive than the old system of nomination by convention? If it results in restoring government to the people, and in the nomination and election of free and honest men to office, it will pay a thousand per cent. on the investment in giving us government for the common good instead of for special interests and in supplying such economies as honest officials will practice, as well as in the honest service they will render. It is by that test that the increased expenditure must be justified, and, if the plan works out as its friends hope, that justification will be ample. There is such a thing as saving at the spigot to lose at the bung.

be traced to the principles he advocates. The whole situation arises from the "Roosevelt policies," which are popularly believed to embody a solution of the difficulties which confront us as a nation. To these policies the republican party is committed, and the present administration is trying its best to enact them into law. Without the Roosevelt policies, Roosevelt would be no more than any other successful politician. Let him abandon them or show any weakness in regard to them and he would at once be hurled from the lofty pedestal on which he now stands. Let the idea get out that he is seeking office for the sake of office, or for any other reason than to advocate those policies, and he would seek office in vain. In other words, the people are still supreme, and no man can "fool them all the time." As long as Lincoln's characterization of us as a people remains true, so long will we be Americans and not Mexicans. We become excited for a time and may seem a little wild on occasion, but our Anglo-Saxon blood finally asserts itself and somehow about the right thing happens.

There is not the least danger that the "Roosevelt phenomenon" will lower our political vitality or lead to anything worse than a little ruction in the republican party, if it does to that. If, on the other hand, he is the man we all think he is, the G.O.P. will be solidified and purified. The Roosevelt policies will be carried into effect and we will enter upon an era of unprecedented prosperity, the keynote of which will be the "square deal."

The Political Watchtower

Sam Jernigan may have been encouraged by the big vote he got for city marshal of Orange at the election some ten days ago. At any rate, he seems to have secured some encouragement, for the word is passed out that he is going to run for sheriff. That Jernigan has had a strong mind that way from away back, is well known, but it was thought he had quieted his ambitions for the present. He enters for the Republican nominations against Ruddock of Fullerton and Wassum of Tustin. Whoever gets the nomination will go up against Lacy, Democrat.

The Grand

Friday and Saturday those two unimitable comedians, Frank Vack, late star comedian of the Princess Theatre, San Francisco, and Arthur Clamage, for the past two seasons with "The Jolly Widow" in New York, will have an opportunity to prove their versatility in a variety of parts during the two night engagement. They are two of the most exuberantly funny comedians that have ever visited Santa Ana. Miss Dolly Bunch, the dainty little soubrette will, in each production, give the fair sex something extremely new and novel to talk about in the way of gowns; will win the hearts of the male portion of the audience with her striking beauty and "chic" appearance, and everyone will be singing or whistling her catchy song hits.

Vaudeville

At Spurgeon's Hall, one night, Saturday, April 23, the Empire Vaudeville Co. will be here. Two hours of solid enjoyment will be furnished with seven big acts and special scenery. Seats on sale at White Cross Drug Store. The box office will be open on the day of the performance. Ben Hess is the manager. He contemplates being here once a month. All are star players from the Orpheum and Sullivan and Constantine circuits.

Reappearance

The management of the Company L play, "Cab 71," take great pleasure in announcing the reappearance on the local stage of one of Santa Ana's best actresses, Mrs. F. M. McClay, nee Miss Florence Thayer. There are few people of the natural ability of Mrs. McClay who are not on the professional stage.

In "Cab 71" she finds exceptional opportunity to use her talents and rehearsals up to date show that she has fully risen to her part. A play of wholesome mirth and unique situations from curtain to curtain is "Cab 71," and Company L will no doubt feel proud of the success that will be attained by every member of the cast. The date is April 29th, at the Grand.

rose covered canopy in the spacious drawing room stood the beautiful bride and the bridegroom as they pledged their word of love. They were unattended and entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. W. T. Merigold. They were united in marriage by Rev. M. M. Kilpatrick of Pasadena, former pastor of the Santa Ana United Presbyterian church.

Gowned in mode shantung silk and carrying a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, the sweet bride presented an exquisite picture. Her going away gown was of tailored tan cloth, hat and gloves matching.

Many handsome and substantial gifts were received, including a generous check from the bridegroom's parents in the east, checks from other sources, cut glass, silver and linen. These were admired by the guests after congratulations and before the three course wedding breakfast was served. Small tables were used for serving and the guests were waited on by the two sisters of the bride, Mesdames Jas. G. Welch and H. S. Stright of Los Angeles, assisted by Mrs. C. D. Overshiner. The Dragon catered. Mrs. Fred Ross took in the beautiful bride's cake, which was cut by Mrs. Hawk and which contained significant symbols. The ring was found by Miss Louise Montgomery, the thimble by William Overshiner, the penny by Miss Marguerite Smith. The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Hazel Rowley.

A merry time was had when the newly married couple attempted to depart. Doors were barricaded and rice throwing parties waited outside. Mr. and Mrs. Hawk finally made their escape, going to Los Angeles at about 3 o'clock. They will reside in Glendale where Mr. Hawk, who is connected with the Union Oil Co., has bought a home. Many good wishes for a long and happy life are their's from scores of friends.

Dedication Week Events

Last night the Congregational church received the townspeople of Santa Ana in the new church. This was the fourth event of Dedication Week, and was informal. The guests were many, the auditorium being well filled during the brief program that occupied the first part of the evening. Rev. Chas. H. Secombe, pastor of the church, welcomed the guests, and Rev. W. L. C. Samson of the United Presbyterian church, gave greetings from his people. Miss Annette Deardorff sang two numbers, "The Vow" (Bohn), and an old English song, "The Keys of Heaven." Miss Hazel Roberts sang "The Years at the Spring" (Mrs. H. A. Beach). Miss Ruth Inez Deardorff brilliantly played an "Intermezzo" by Leschtiok.

The beauties of the church and pipe organ were viewed by the guests and congratulations were showered on pastor and people for their achievement. The serving of wafers and fruitade added to the sociability of the occasion. The church parlor and auditorium were prettily decorated with roses.

Organ Recital

The pipe organ recital given on Tuesday evening attracted another capacity audience. The recital was conducted by Frank L. Anderson of Claremont, and he gave an exhibition of marvelous technique. The organ proved its timbre, its full, sweet tones producing a beautiful result. Mesdames Fyfe, Rafferty, Chapman and Miss Havens sang two lovely quartets, and Lloyd Sharp sang the Processional splendidly.

Church Supper

Tonight the annual meeting and supper of the members of the church and congregation will take place.

Birthday Party

Miss Gladys McDannald of Berrydale, having arrived at the age when girls are supposed to be able to do their own choosing in the affairs of life, was last night the central figure in a pleasant party. About forty people, old and young, and of "doubtful" age, gathered at her home late in the evening, arriving with ice cream freezers, lemonade, sandwiches and cakes of many kinds, but all good—to look at. Instrumental music, songs, and various pastimes kept everybody good natured and happy.

"Our Aunt From California"
Tomorrow night at Tustin an attractive entertainment is promised. The affair will be given at the K. P. Hall, under the direction of Ernest Phillips, a fact insuring its excellence.

Part one of the entertainment will be a very funny play, "Our Aunt From California," and the cast embraces several charming Tustin young ladies, who are Misses Inez Phinney, Georgia Liggett, Edna Joslyn, Gladys Van Hise, Jessie De Bann, Ruth Hillyard, and a clever performance may be expected.

In the second part a varied program will be given with Mr. Phillips giving readings, Miss Ruth Deardorff, pianist, rendering instrumental numbers, and Miss Emmeline Petersen, soprano, appearing in vocal numbers. This gives an attractive program and without doubt many Santa Anans will attend the entertainment, while Tustin people will turn out in force.

Excellent Class Meeting

The Young Married People's class of the First Methodist church held the usual monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. D. G. Buchheim, on East Santa Clara, last night. After the business meeting the class was entertained with a short program. Following this, refreshments of ice cream and cake and dainty home made candies were served.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Raugh, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heil, C. W. Storm, J. B. Warner, F. H. Masters, R. H. McArthur, Mrs. Myrtle Miller and Mr. Bert Leigh.

ORANGE COUNTY W. C. T. U. CONVENTION IS NOW ENDED

Rousing Resolutions Adopted—Excellent Addresses—Officers of Last Year Were Re-elected

FULLERTON, April 21.—The second day of the Orange County W. C. T. U. Convention was called to order by President Mrs. Norman at 9:30 o'clock. Praise service was led by Mrs. Davies of Santa Ana. Mrs. Heartwell of Huntington Beach made some remarks on Praise. The Jubilee song was sung by the convention. An announcement came from the Fullerton Domestic Science School of a food sale, also an invitation for the convention to visit that department. The convention accepted and went in a body.

Miss Howard of Long Beach, Supt. of non-alcoholic flavorings, was introduced and made some remarks. Orange union having made the largest gain in membership received the handsome banner given each year for greatest gain.

Election of officers was held and resulted as follows:
President—Mrs. Viola Norman.
Vice-President—Mrs. Anna Hill.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Alma A. Kellogg.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Lea Warren.
Assistant Rec. Secretary—Miss Mary Cooper.

Treasurer—Mrs. Frances Paine.
Assistant Treasurer—Mrs. Nellie Tedford.
County "Y" Secretary—Mrs. Anna Hill.

County L. T. L. Secretary—Mrs. Stella Harper.
All officers were re-elected. Mrs. Frances Paine of Orange begins serving on her 20th year. Mrs. Mills, President of the organization of Superintendents, held a conference on "What You Have Done, and What You are Going to Do." Each superintendent responding.

Convention adjourned for lunch in the banquet room of the church.

When the delegates reconvened at 1:30 o'clock, Mrs. J. H. Scott led in the Bible Study.

The newly appointed superintendents of departments were introduced by the president.

Mrs. Mitt Phillips of Santa Ana favored the convention with a beautiful solo, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Raugh.

Prize essays came from Orange Grammar School and Huntington Beach High School. The winner of the Grammar school was Vina Little of Orange, who read her essay and received a five dollar gold piece. Miss Velda Reynolds of Huntington Beach read her splendid essay on "The Value of Total Abstinence to a Life," and received the prize of $10 in gold.

Mrs. Maude Winbiger of Santa Ana sang a beautiful solo entitled "Victory."

Miss Ella Howard of Long Beach, superintendent of No Alcohol flavorings, gave a splendid demonstration of flavorings containing alcohol.

Miss Howard demonstrated by showing the per cent of alcohol contained in flavorings by burning a portion of the flavorings. She urged all temperance people to use flavorings containing no alcohol.

Mrs. John Swanner of Santa Ana gave a splendid address on "Things Worth While." The convention requested that this address be published.

A question box was conducted by Mrs. Norman. One of the questions was about "Children's Reading Material in School." The myths were not approved of for smaller children.

The name of "Ransom Home" is to be changed. Orange County Convention suggested the name of W. C. T. U. Home to take to the State Convention.

The President appointed the following committees:

Appropriation—Mrs. Ruth Lindgren Huntington Beach, and Mrs. Ramsey Santa Ana.

Resolution Committee—Mrs. J. N. Anderson, Santa Ana; Mrs. Yeoman, Anaheim; Mrs. Nora Davies, Santa Ana.

Program Committee—Miss Sarah Finley, of Santa Ana.

Auditing Committee—Mrs. Frazier, Orange.

After thanking the Fullerton Union for its kind hospitality, the members of the convention all joined hands forming a circle around the entire church and sang, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," which closed the convention.

Resolutions
The following resolutions were adopted.

We the convention assembled do heartily endorse any and all who are working for the closing of pool rooms to minors, also all who are trying in any way to make and keep Orange county clean. We also desire to express our appreciation for the Press of the county for the very many times and ways they have helped us by publishing notices and temperance items, also that we remember District Attorney Davis and City Marshal Edwards of Santa Ana, and also Rev. J. H. Scott, the probation officer, for their good work.

In as much as many of our towns throughout the county allow and tolerate the Sunday evening picture shows, and as it is an abomination in the sight of all Christian men and women, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the women of the Orange County W. C. T. U. enter a protest against the desecration of the Sabbath by the open picture shows.

Resolved, That as Christian Women we agitate the question of changing our State Constitution, so that the Bible may be used in our public schools; that we deplore the efforts that have been made in the last few weeks to introduce the open saloon in some of the towns of our county and that we call on all voters and citizens to not only help to make our county a prohibition county and also to use all vigilance and perseverance to keep it so.

Resolved, That we, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Orange county pledge ourselves, as officers, Superintendents and members to use our best efforts to increase interest in our work and secure membership to such an extent that we stand higher and stronger one year from now than ever before in our history, and to this end we will make ourselves thoroughly acquainted with all methods of bringing our work up to the highest standard.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that every member of the W. C. T. U. should insist that the private life of every candidate for public office in the county elections be spotless and that the women stand behind the men who are to vote and encourage them to vote only for pure minded men.

In as much as the twenty-first annual convention of Orange County W. C. T. U. is being entertained in the beautiful city of Fullerton and that the sisters have gladly opened their hearts and homes to us; also that the Methodist friends have welcomed us cordially to their pretty church, be it also

Resolved, That we remember the Fullerton Military Band for responding so willingly to their part of the dedicating of the Fountain. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we in convention assembled extend to one and all our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for it all, and pray God's richest blessing upon all who are working for the uplifting and betterment of humanity.

Clairvoyant What Will Be Thy Fate? LUZON The World's Greatest Psychic Adept and Palmist

The best will come—those who have never visited a clairvoyant before. Why? Because I intelligently unravel their troubles. I see all, I tell all, and never ask a solitary question, but you must come to me fair-minded and honest, or I cannot help you; the very nature of my profession admits of no challenge contest. Be passive and I will tell your innermost soul, solve the mysteries that rack your brain and life from your spirit the troubles and cares that weight it down, tell what you earn, and whether or not you could do better, where to invest your money to gain the greatest result; the prospect of an increase in business, who your employer is and how you rate with him; who of your employees are honest or dishonest with you. I give the names of those who love you, who are true and those who are false. I locate missing persons, papers, and furnish evidence, I give the names of your rivals, enemies and friends. I do and out what causes your bad luck and remove spells, hindrances, stumbling blocks and hurts. I stop evil habits, vice and your enemies' designs.

If you are going to consult a clairvoyant, why not see the best.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Just where all the apples are going which are still held in the storage warehouses is a mystery even to the big dealers unless it is to the dumps. The realization is gradually coming that more than enough apples were stored last fall and that the market is so oversupplied as to cost some of the merchants goodly sums of money. There has never been a winter when the prices of apples have remained so low or when receipts have continued so late. The result has been a large number of apples still on hand and with fresh fruit arriving, a diminution of demand despite the fact that prices are lower now than they have ever been at the same season of the year and they are going still lower because dealers are cutting prices on each other in order to get rid of all possible stock.

A half cent was cut from the price of all local eggs yesterday morning. This is an indication of the steady feeling in the market, caused partly by smaller arrivals of the past few days and general firmness in all parts of the country. Receipts were 586 cases. There are few eastern eggs on the market and coast stock is pretty well cleaned up.

Butter receipts were 38,918 pounds. There were no changes. The butter board changed the method again of quoting to the retail trade, making the price 2 cents higher than the jobbing quotation. There were no heavy sales.

Cheese was rather a quiet commodity on the market. Receipts were large—9193 pounds. Northern fresh sold at 14½ among the jobbers.

The situation in the potato market is unchanged. Prices as quoted were dropped several points on nearly all varieties. Receipts were light, only 303 sacks. New spuds were offered as low as 75 cents per lug box. Onion prices were also off. Bermudas sold freely at $1.30, with a few bringing more and some less. Oregon stock still on hand dropped from $2.25 to $1.75 per hundred. Receipts were 47 sacks.

There was little new in fresh fruits. Prices were all the same and in berries, shipments to outside points were about the only feature. Berries shipped in refrigerators and refrigerator cars are all reported to be holding up well. Loquats sold from 8 to 10 cents a pound.

Pompano, the fish of the Epicure were received yesterday morning from San Pedro. They are running in very small schools and the catch so far has not been large enough even for commercial sales. A few mackerel were also shipped in. Barracuda were very plentiful. Catfish from the north

STATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION AT SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, April 21.—Extensive preparations are being made by the local committee for the coming State Christian Endeavor Convention, which is to be held here July 1-5; practically all the 1600 Endeavorers of the city and county are concerned in the effort being made to give this convention a record significance. No expense or pains will be spared to make every detail unsurpassed by former efforts.

As a Convention Auditorium, the great Skating Rink at the center of the city and convenient to all car lines, has been secured upon an unconditional agreement. Seating capacity of nearly four thousand, unequaled acoustic properties, and a facility for lending itself to effective decoration, are among its many good qualities. This last feature is one that is already receiving attention, the services of an expert decorator being in requisition. The prevailing note of the color scheme will be, of course, the purple and gold, with enough contrastingly harmonious blending to produce an effect hitherto unattempted.

Among the later developments in the Committee's plans is a large Chorus Choir, the drilling of which is about to be commenced by Prof. Milton L. Lawrence; an augmented orchestra, consisting of all the available semi-professional talent in the city; and a great soloist, none other than W. E. Johnson of San Francisco. In the hands of a very capable committee, the music will become one of the greatest attractions next July.

A systematic advertising campaign, of which mention has been made in these columns is under full sway. Using a mailing list of about five hundred, including therein every Endeavor society and union in the State, together with all the prominent past and present workers, the Publicity Committee are issuing, bi-weekly, a Bulletin of "San Jose 1910" affairs that is having an immensely propagative influence. It is kept thoroughly up-to-date with new material, and is written in a manner as to keep the Endeavorers at large on the qui vive. Much effective boosting, with reference to the Garden City, is done in this way. The business men therefore are greatly interested in the movement, and have subscribed heavily toward the convention, naturally taking an interest in the doings of the young people, especially when it means bringing a great number of strangers to the city.

CONKLIN AIMED ONLY TO LEG HIM

ran south along the tracks. Chadney had jumped in among the Chinese, revolver in hand. Chadney fired four shots.

Espinoza was running rapidly, bent low. Conklin decided to put a bullet in one of the man's legs. It was rather dark, and he could not see to aim well, but the officer felt certain he aimed low. He fired. Espinoza seemed to jump off the embankment, and disappeared.

The Chinese were scattering. Chadney gathered in two of them, and Conklin the other two.

Conklin and Chadney both say they did not believe at that time that Espinoza had been struck. As they were walking along the tracks with the four captured Chinese they heard a groan coming from among the tall wild oats near the bottom of the twelve-foot embankment. On the ground they found Espinoza's revolver, a long-barreled 44 with a number "33" upon it, as though the number of a policeman. Espinoza was found wounded and helpless.

A wagon was borrowed from Abe Johnson. Green grass was piled in to the wagon as bedding for the injured man, and the trip here was begun.

Sheriff Lacy and the inspectors discovered a mark upon one of the ties that makes them believe that Conklin's bullet struck the tie and glanced upward.

For the sheriff's benefit Conklin fired two shots from the spot where two empty shells were found, and where he stood when he fired. These shots were aimed to strike at the point where the scar appeared on the tie. One bullet glanced and sung off into space. The other struck and went bumping along the railroad reservation. The sheriff thinks there is every reason to believe that Espinoza was wounded by a glancing bullet.

Conklin and Chadney are very strongly of the opinion that the two Mexicans who passed by before Espinoza and the Chinese arrived are also smugglers. The officers think they were an advance guard. If so, they failed in their mission of giving a danger signal to Espinoza and the Chinese.

Sheriff Lacy yesterday discovered where these men had run away, probably at the first shots. They ran either from fright, or because they were smugglers and thought the place was a good place to get away from. The pair cut off across a grain field. In their haste a red blanket was dropped, and further on was a bundle containing food. The sheriff has these articles.

County Physician Ball performed the autopsy last night. The bullet struck the pelvis, broke a bone, split into pieces and ranged upward. Parts of the bullet tore through the intestines and as far upward as the liver. The fact that the man was bent low probably resulted in the upward course.

This afternoon the time of the inquest was postponed to 2 o'clock tomorrow. This was done at the request of a man in San Diego, who telephoned here. He said that he was a friend of Espinoza and wants to be at the inquest.

STOMACHS REPAIRED

Relieves Distress in Five Minutes
Let Mrs. Griffith tell you about Mi-on-a, the greatest prescription for stomach trouble ever written.

"For years I have doctored for acute gastritis, but received only slight benefit, and had to be careful what I ate. But, thanks to Mi-on-a stomach tablets, I can now eat anything. Last Christmas, after partaking of a hearty turkey dinner, I was seized with an attack of acute indigestion, and the doctor worked over me for hours before I got relief. He paid me eight visits before I could say I was well enough to sit up. But since then I have taken Mi-on-a tablets, and I have not been troubled since. Before using Mi-on-a I had attacks about every month."—Mrs. Ida Griffith, 1213 C. St., Washington, D. C., July 5, 1909.

Mi-on-a stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and by the Rowley Drug Co., for 50 cents a large box. They are guaranteed to cure indigestion, sour stomach, belching gas, dizziness, biliousness, heaviness, or any stomach ailment.
